Our school priorities for the school year 2018-2019 are:

To increase progress in reading and writing in all year groups.

To deepen the enrichment opportunities within the curriculum to include opportunities for contextual cross-curricular learning.

Develop the Christian distinctiveness of the school including the spiritual dimension of all subjects, through the inclusion of a curriculum that develops children's characters, global awareness and understanding of community responsibility

Do you think these priorities reflect your expectations of Lew Trenchard School?

- Yes
- Absolutely
- Excellent
- These are key development points
- I am not sure that the school celebrates academic excellence enough
- Concentrating on reading, writing and maths meets my expectations
- Partially
- Teaching and learning is a key priority so yes.
- Yes because I expect my child to leave school competent in maths, reading and writing

What would you like us to do better at school?

- More trips – make sure all classes have same opportunities
- Homework should be targeted to problem areas, marked quickly and responded to
- More information about my child's progress
- Range of PE offered
- Test less – takes too much time out of their education
- Provide wider breadth of subjects for children to explore and enjoy their education and provide a broad foundation to be built upon in the future
- Ensure focus is on need and provision for all children regardless of targets associated with particular pupil groups
- Communication about progress and what they are learning at school
- Better planning of events during term time
- Shorter Christmas performance
- More outdoor learning
- More hands on science lessons
- More opportunities to read aloud – more parent reading volunteers
- More notice of changes to clubs, etc.
- Higher fence around the main gate/closely monitored at pick up and drop off
- Consistency of time morning bell rung
- Offer a wider range of music and drama clubs and activities
- More cooking
- Just keep doing what you're doing!
- Celebrate academic achievement
- Regular feedback on test results would help us to gauge progress
- More team sports and more variety of PE – problem solving in teams
- Improve website links to home learning – spark learning at home
